Karaş, Abdurrahman

Attika seramiği'nde Troia Savaşı / Abdurrahman Karaş. -- Atatürk Üniversitesi : [yayl. y.], 2007

276 y.

Bu çalışmada, Attika seramiğinde Troia Savaşı Destanı ile ilgili yaklaşık olarak MÖ. 750 ile 320 arası dönem içerisine tarihlendirilen görsel kanıtlar, mitolojik anlatımların alınarak sunulmuştur. Aynı konu ile ilgili birden çok örnek arasında ise kronolojiksıra geçerlidir. Troia Destanı ile ilgili ilk kıvılcımın çakıldığı, Peleus ile Thetis'indüğünüde, kavga tanrıçası Eris'in, altın elmayı konuklar arasına atarak güzelliktartışmasını alevlendirmesi ile başlayan olay, Aineias'ın yanmakta olan Troia'yı terketmesi ile sonlandırılmıştır.

In this study, visual descriptions of the Attica pottery which date back to a period between nearly 750 B.C. and 320 B.C. and which are related to the Epic of Trojan War were presented in mythological perspective. Among many examples on the same subject, the historical chronology was taken as a basis.
The subject which started with a beauty quarrel when Eris, the goddess of fight, threw a gold apple to the audience at the wedding of Peleus and Thetis, the first spark of Troia, finished with Aineias's leaving Troia on fire

 1 online resource
 Abstract: OREA 1 presents the scientific results of the international symposium Western Anatolia before Troy - Proto-Urbanisation in the 4th Millennium BC? The sparse archaeological data published for the 5th and 4th millennia BC and the archaeological picture of western Anatolia, fundamentally changed in the last decades, needed to bring together specialists of western Turkey and the neighbouring regions to discuss new data in the light of socio-cultural processes in the period before Troy. Furthermore, following the results of the ERC research group (ERC project Prehistoric Anatolia), it appeared high time to focus on this period as it had been frequently neglected in the recent dynamic prehistoric research in western Turkey.
